Guide to receive your tax credit.

Background

- On October 3rd, 2008, President George W. Bush signed, into law, the Emergency Stabilization Act followed by President Barack Obama signing, into law, the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA) on February 17th, 2009.
- The combined effect of these two laws provides a 30% Tax Credit on both the purchase and installation of qualifying products in renewable technologies such as; Solar Electric Property, Residential Solar Water Heating, Qualified small wind energy and qualified Geothermal Heat pump energy as well as others.

Under these laws VELUX Solar Powered Fresh Air Skylights as well as VELUX Solar Powered Blinds qualify under "Solar Electric Property" expenditures when purchased and installed from January 1, 2009 through December 31st, 2016. This tax credit is a direct debit of the taxpayers total tax liability. (For more information please visit www.veluxusa.com/taxcredits)

What do I need to do?

When the product is installed:

- Keep your receipts for total price paid (invoice from contractor for product and installation) of the qualifying VELUX products.
- Attach receipts to a completed the Manufacturers Certification Statement¹ and keep for your records (on the reverse side).

When it is tax time:

- Fill out the IRS Residential Energy Efficient Property Credit tax form 5695 (under "Qualified solar electric property cost")
- Submit it with your taxes. Enter this tax credit off of form 5695 on your IRS tax form 10402 (tax forms can be found at www.irs.gov).
